Student Expectations

Attendance

Your participation in this online class will be counted by your contributions to the lecture quizzes and chapter quizzes each week.

Gordon Rule Requirement

This course is a Gordon Rule course. In accordance with the State of Florida's Rule 6A-10.030, all courses designated as Gordon Rule ("GR") in the college catalog will include the requirement that students demonstrate the ability to produce college-level, discipline-based writings. Such courses include, but are not limited to, those in the Communications, Humanities, and Social Sciences categories. This requirement will be met in each class through the student's successful completion of multiple and substantive college-level writing assignments as designed and assessed by the instructor in such a way as to measure both course-specific learning and development of writing skills over the progress of a given semester. In addition to demonstrating a satisfactory understanding of the written English language, all such assignments submitted by a student should exhibit critical thinking skills and be directly related to the discipline's specific General Learning Outcome(s). In this course, students will write at least 3500 words, with these writing assignments making up 40% of the graded activities for this course.

Grading Policies (Student Performance Measures)

- Lecture Quizzes (10%) – Each module, you will watch a short video lecture, during which you will be asked questions about the material presented. These “quizzes” are open-note/book and are meant to grade your participation in the class.
- Chapter Study Quizzes (10%) – Each module, there is a 10-question, multiple-choice and true-false quiz you'll take as well. These questions are focused on concepts that might appear on the FCLE.
- Writing Assignments (25%) – You'll have to complete four writing assignments during the course. These are dispersed throughout the course. Failure to meet the word count on any written assignment will result in an immediate 25% grade deduction.
- GLO Essay (15%) – Towards the end of the semester, you will need to submit your 1,250-word GLO essay, which focuses a reflection on what you've learned during the class (more details will be given as the assignment gets closer). Failure to meet the word count on any written assignment will result in an immediate 25% grade deduction.
- Exams (30%)
- FCLE Exam (10%) – To get credit for this exam, you have to provide proof of your taking (or having already taken) the FCLE exam by uploading a document (or picture of the document) to Canvas by Sunday, 12/7 at 11:59pm.
  - Dual enrollment students: You must take the FCLE with your own high school, which sets their own schedule on when you can take the test. In order to satisfy this requirement, your guidance counselor will sign a document confirming you are scheduled to take the FCLE on a certain date. Upload this document by 12/7 in order to get credit.

When are things due?

Each assignment is due by Sunday at 11:59pm at the week's end unless otherwise noted. For example, Week 1 starts on Monday, August 18th and ends on Sunday, August 24th. All assignments that week are due at 11:59pm that Sunday. Week 2's content begins the following day (Monday).

Late Work

As this is an online class, you have a lot of flexibility within the week to submit your assignments. For instance, you have about three days to take each of the exams. Because of this timeframe, no make-up exams or extensions will be offered.

All other assignments (so, NOT the exams) will be open for 48 hours after the original due date with up to a 20% penalty for late submissions. If there are any issues arise (medical, family, personal) that prevent you from submitting assignments properly and on time, please contact me asap.

Writing Assignments: You'll have to complete four writing assignments throughout the course. The first three are 500-words, the last is 750. They are due by Sunday at 11:59pm following the week it is assigned (see Course Schedule for specifics) on Canvas. A more in-depth prompt for each paper will be on Canvas. These prompts will specifically tell you what each paper should include to get full credit. Failure to meet the word count on any written assignment will result in an immediate 25% grade deduction.

Exams: You will take three exams over the course of the semester. Each exam is mandatory and worth 10% of your final grade. These exams will assess your understanding of class and reading material. They are NOT open-note or open-book. Each exam will consist of 50 multiple choice and True-False questions. It is imperative to attend and actively participate in all class sessions. Exams will be accessed using Honorlock.

The exams open on Friday at noon and close on Sunday at 11:59pm. Because of this timeframe, no extensions will be offered.

At the end of the semester, you have the option to take a cumulative make-up exam. This OPTIONAL cumulative exam (covers material from the whole semester) will take the place of your lowest exam grade from the first three exams. If you score lower on the cumulative make-up exam than the other three, then it will not count against you in your final grade.

Exam Time Length: The exams, consisting of 50 questions, will be 40 minutes long. Studies show that approximately 45 seconds per question is more than enough time for students who know the material to be able to answer the question. With 40 minutes, you have 48 seconds per question.

Grading Scale

- A – 90% - 100%
- B – 80% - 89.9%
- C – 70% - 79.9%
- D – 60% - 69.9%
- F – 59.9% or below

Contesting your Grade:

It is understandable that, at times, you have questions or concerns with regard to a grade you received on one of your exams or writing assignment. In order to turn questions about your grade into a learning experience, your grade dispute will be received in the following way:

- Cooling off period: I will not consider any grade related inquiries within the first 48 hours after the grades have been handed out. This ‘cooling off’-period provides the opportunity to let the initial emotions subside and think more clearly about the issue at hand.

Under Students and the Complaints & Appeals section (<https://www.fgc.edu/students/complaints-and-appeals.html>), information regarding policy, procedure, and forms related to these topics is provided.

College Course Withdrawal and Drop Process

A course may be dropped only during the published add/drop period. After add/drop, students must withdrawal from their course. Please visit the College Catalog for more detailed information about the drop and withdrawal process.

Students are responsible for withdrawing by the published deadline. Students must allow sufficient time for the process to be completed. The fully approved withdrawal form is due to Enrollment Services by 4:30 p.m. on the deadline posted on the Academic Calendar or it is considered late.

To withdraw from a course, the following steps must take place:

1. The student obtains the instructor's authorization and last date of attendance in person or via email.
2. The student meets with an academic advisor, who will sign the form (Building 14). Or, if an online student, emails the advisor a statement requesting a withdrawal from the course. The email must include the instructor's email with the last date of attendance.
3. The advisor will complete a withdrawal form, attach the emails from the student and instructor in lieu of signatures and forward the form to Financial Aid.
4. A Financial Aid representative will complete and sign the form and forward the form to Enrollment Services to be processed.

Students are strongly encouraged to begin the withdrawal process the day before the withdrawal deadline to allow sufficient time for the process to be completed by all offices involved (Instructor, Advising Services, Financial Aid, Enrollment Services).

It is the student's responsibility to understand all financial and academic implications of the withdrawal. Students are permitted a maximum of two (2) withdrawals per course. Upon the third attempt, a student must receive a grade for the course. Absence from class or merely notifying the professor does not constitute withdrawal. A student who stops attending class without withdrawing will receive a grade from the instructor.

Incompletes

Incomplete grades are reserved for students who are unable to complete a course and the withdrawal date has passed. A student should only be issued an incomplete if at least 75% of the course assignments have been submitted and the student can reasonably complete the remaining assignments within the first three weeks of the next term to earn a passing overall grade. Otherwise, students should be issued the earned letter grade in the course at the end of the current term.

The Incomplete Grade Request Form must be completed and submitted for approval by the FIRST day of Final Exams and BEFORE issuing the "I" grade. The instructor will describe the circumstances leading up to the requested "I" for the course, and list the missing assignments, quizzes, exams, and any other course requirements needed to satisfactorily complete the course within the first three weeks of the next term. The form must be signed by the instructor, student, and the Dean/Executive Director over the program. Once all participants have signed, an approval email will be sent to the instructor for authorization to assign the "I" grade.
