Student Expectations

Attendance

While attendance itself doesn't count as a "grade" in this class, it's still important for you to be here and be engaged because the more actively engaged you are in your courses, the stronger learning and better grades you tend to earn. This is a 8 week course, so you will need to spend a substantive amount of time in our course (think around 3 hours per module). Be sure to show up for yourself this semester!

You might be wondering what attendance looks like in an online class like ours, so let's set up some definitions. For official purposes, attendance in our class is tied to assignment submissions. If you have submitted an assignment for that module, you've attended class for that module. This primarily affects you being dropped from the class during the Add/Drop period, the date for a potential withdrawal, and a date I will have to put with your final grades if you earn a D/F.

Unofficially, I will be monitoring how much time you are spending in our course and how frequently you access our Canvas course. This doesn't directly affect your grade (you don't have to spend X number of hours in the course to get an A, for example), but it will help me see if you are or are not accessing parts of the course like lectures. If you are just completing the tasks on your To-Do List and not fully engaging with the course materials, I am able to see that and may mark as such if you have trouble with an assignment and I see you haven't worked with the course resources.

The #1 way to fail this course is to not engage yourself in the modules with the learning resources, so be sure to be an active student—it's eight weeks, so fake it if you have to for just that long!

Courtesy and Student Conduct Code

Students are expected to treat everyone with respect. Disagree or agree, but do it respectfully. Students should use proper communication tools in Canvas to contact other students. Use my FGC official email to contact me- I will respond within 24 hours of your original communication.

Late Work

All assignments will be open for 48 hours after the original due date with a 20% penalty for late submissions. If there are any issues arise (medical, family, personal) that prevent you from submitting assignments properly and on time, please contact me asap.

Gordon Rule Requirement

This course is a Gordon Rule course. In accordance with the State of Florida's Rule 6A-10.030, all courses designated as Gordon Rule ("GR") in the college catalog will include the requirement that students demonstrate the ability to produce college-level, discipline-based writings. Such courses include, but are not limited to, those in the Communications, Humanities, and Social Sciences categories. This requirement will be met in each class through the student's successful completion of multiple and substantive college-level writing assignments as designed and assessed by the instructor in such a way as to measure both course-specific learning and development of writing skills over the progress of a given semester. In addition to demonstrating a satisfactory understanding of the written English language, all such assignments submitted by a student should exhibit critical thinking skills and be directly related to the discipline's specific General Learning Outcome(s). In this course, students will write at least 3500 words, with these writing assignments making up 45% of the graded activities for this course.

Grading Policies (Student Performance Measures)

Learning Activities: In-Seat and Online

- FCLE Study Guide (7.5%) – Each module, you'll be asked to add to the FCLE study guide, designed to help you learn key terms and Supreme Court cases.
- FCLE Chapter Study Quizzes (7.5%) – There is a 10-question, multiple-choice and true-false quiz you'll take as well. These questions are focused on concepts that might appear on the FCLE.
- Writing Assignments (25%) – You'll have to complete five, 500-word writing assignments during the course. These are dispersed throughout the course. Failure to meet the word count on any written assignment will result in an immediate 25% grade deduction.
- Creative Assignments (25%) – In addition to the writing assignments, you'll also complete video reflections and slideshow projects.
- GLO Essay (20%) – In Module 12, you will need to submit your 1,000-word GLO essay, which focuses on the Separation of Powers between the three branches of the Federal Government. Failure to meet the word count on any written assignment will result in an immediate 25% grade deduction.

- Final (15%) – You will have two choices for the final exam. You can either complete the FCLE and reflect on the experience, or respond to 15 short-answer questions for a cumulative exam.

College Course Withdrawal and Drop Process

A course may be dropped only during the published add/drop period. After add/drop, students must withdrawal from their course. Please visit the College Catalog for more detailed information about the drop and withdrawal process.

Students are responsible for withdrawing by the published deadline. Students must allow sufficient time for the process to be completed. The fully approved withdrawal form is due to Enrollment Services by 4:30 p.m. on the deadline posted on the Academic Calendar or it is considered late.

To withdraw from a course, the following steps must take place:

1. The student obtains the instructor's authorization and last date of attendance in person or via email.
2. The student meets with an academic advisor, who will sign the form (Building 14). Or, if an online student, emails the advisor a statement requesting a withdrawal from the course. The email must include the instructor's email with the last date of attendance.

3. The advisor will complete a withdrawal form, attach the emails from the student and instructor in lieu of signatures and forward the form to Financial Aid.
4. A Financial Aid representative will complete and sign the form and forward the form to Enrollment Services to be processed.

Students are strongly encouraged to begin the withdrawal process the day before the withdrawal deadline to allow sufficient time for the process to be completed by all offices involved (Instructor, Advising Services, Financial Aid, Enrollment Services).

It is the student's responsibility to understand all financial and academic implications of the withdrawal. Students are permitted a maximum of two (2) withdrawals per course. Upon the third attempt, a student must receive a grade for the course. Absence from class or merely notifying the professor does not constitute withdrawal. A student who stops attending class without withdrawing will receive a grade from the instructor.

Incompletes

Incomplete grades are reserved for students who are unable to complete a course and the withdrawal date has passed. A student should only be issued an incomplete if at least 75% of the course assignments have been submitted and the student can reasonably complete the remaining assignments within the first three weeks of the next term to earn a passing overall grade. Otherwise, students should be issued the earned letter grade in the course at the end of the current term.

The Incomplete Grade Request Form must be completed and submitted for approval by the FIRST day of Final Exams and BEFORE issuing the "I" grade. The instructor will describe the circumstances leading up to the requested "I" for the course, and list the missing assignments, quizzes, exams, and any other course requirements needed to satisfactorily complete the course within the first three weeks of the next term. The form must be signed by the instructor, student, and the Dean/Executive Director over the program. Once all participants have signed, an approval email will be sent to the instructor for authorization to assign the "I" grade.

Student Communication Standards

You are expected to communicate in a professional and respectful tone with the instructor and fellow classmates. All written communication (in email correspondence, discussion forums, assignments, quizzes and exams, etc.) must use proper written English. Please refrain from using online and texting abbreviations and language. Oral communications, if applicable, must be made with a respectful tone and body language.
